Advertising Logo Will Identify Businesses That Are Golf-Cart Accessible

Want to make sure you can get to a store or eatery that is golf-cart accessible?

Be sure to check for the specific “logo” in Daily Sun advertising that indicates you can arrive at a business that welcomes you and your golf cart.

The logo that will appear in advertising will let readers know that a business is both golf-cart accessible and charter-school eligible.

Every day, the Daily Sun publishes a host of information about the many types of businesses in The Villages®, including restaurants, clothing merchandisers, salons, golf shops, grocery stores and furniture suppliers.

Check the advertisements for the special logo that indicates that the business in which you are interested welcomes golf carts.

KEEP LAKE COUNTY A GREAT PLACE & A SAFE PLACE

YOU HOLD THE KEY

TO A SAFE COMMUNITY

Vehicle break-ins are crimes of opportunity. Sheriff Peyton C. Grinnell is asking you to take these steps to make your vehicle unappealing to criminals:

- Remove all valuables or keep them out of sight. Make sure to remove all base mounts, cords and chargers from view as well.
- Disable or remove your garage door opener.
- Don't leave key fobs, keys or firearms in your vehicle.
- Lock your doors even when your car is parked at home. That's where most unlocked vehicle burglaries happen. Many thieves pull on door handles until they find an unlocked vehicle.
- If your vehicle is broken into, report it to law enforcement even if nothing significant was taken. Your information can help investigators identify trends and solve crimes.
- If you have information about criminal activity that is NOT in progress, call 800-423-TIPS (8477)
